7. Met with Mr. Ralph Preston, House Appropriations Committee staff, who advised that Chairman Mahon left for Lubbock, Texas with George Lincoln, Director, Office of Emergency Prepardness. There is no indication at present when the Chairman might be returning. Representative Sikes will be the Acting Chairman in Representative Mahon's absence. 25X1 8. Bill Woodruff, Senate Appropriations Committee staff, visited Heauquarters for a meeting with the Director, Colonel White and me regarding our upcoming appearance before the CIA Subcommittee on 19 May. Since this will be the first Subcommittee meeting presided over by Senator Ellender, it was agreed that the Director would pay a courtesy call on Ellender prior to the hearing and clarify for him certain aspects of the intelligence community. 9. On the Director's instructions, I called Senator Allen J. Ellender's office and made a date for the Director to see the Senator at 0915 on Friday, 15 May, in the Senator's office, 245 Old Senate Office Building. Talked to Don Henderson, Senate Foreign Relations Committee staff, who said that apparently the Carl Marcy problem has now been quitely resolved and Marcy is back at his desk. cc: 25X1 Rr.
